Vestry and Diocesan Council Delegate Elections Nomination Deadline is Today at 6:00p

Do you know someone you think would be a good Vestry member or Diocesan Council delegate?

Vestry and Diocesan Council Delegate elections are scheduled for December 6. Candidates must be communicants in good standing (faithful in corporate worship and in working, praying and giving for the spread of God's Kingdom). Giving is defined as making a financial contribution recorded by the Parish Administrator, including, but not limited to, a pledge. The Vestry term is a three year commitment with monthly Vestry meetings and active participation on a committee and at parish events. Five Vestry members will be elected.

Diocesan Council Delegate term is three years. The commitment includes attendance at Diocesan Council in February of each year. One delegate will be elected. The second highest vote getter is the Alternate Delegate and attends Council for a one year term.

Submit nominations for Vestry and Council Delegate to Beth Granger. A Nomination Form will be sent to a nominee upon submission of nomination and confirmation of a nominee as a communicant in good standing. A nomination is not final until a completed Nomination Form and picture are received by the Nominating Committee as instructed on the Nomination Form. Under Good Shepherd adopted election procedures, the completed Nomination Form and picture must be received by November 15 in order for a nominee's name to appear on the ballot.

Remaining on the Vestry are: Betsey Bishop, Truman Breed, Dean Davis, Brian Gaston, Catherine Heidrick, Corby Jastrow, Frank Lyon, Jeff Mucci, Lindsay Sharpe, and Suzanne Stewart.

Remaining as Diocesan Delegates are: William Cromwell, Dave Jarrott and the 2010 Senior Warden.

Vestry and Diocesan Council Delegate elections will be held December 6th. Voting will begin during the 7:30a. service and will continue until 30 minutes after the 5:00p. service. To be eligible to vote you must be at least 16 years old and a communicant in good standing (faithful in corporate worship and in working, praying and giving for the spread of God's Kingdom). There are no absentee ballots. If you are unsure whether you are eligible to vote contact Nancy Wade in the church office, 476 3523. Please vote!

specifically the Veronese altar piece that is on special display this fall. Afterwards, they will have wine and gourmet pizza in the Blanton Café. Meet in the lobby of the museum at 6:30p. There is no admission fee at the museum and parking is free in the surface lot at the corner of MLK and Congress, across the street from the museum.

The Rt. Rev. C. Andrew Doyle will Visit Good Shepherd for Confirmation and Baptism

For some weeks now, the Discovery Class for adults and Youth Confirmation for teenagers have been preparing for Good Shepherd's annual episcopal visit. This fall we are privileged to welcome our Bishop Diocesan, the Right Reverend C. Andrew Doyle, next Sunday, November 22. Bishop Doyle will preach and confirm at the 9:00a and 11:10a, and again at 5:00p services on the final Sunday of this liturgical year, known as Christ the King. Between services, there will be a reception for our new Confirmands and for Bishop Doyle.

The occasion of our Bishop's visit invites the participation and prayers of our whole parish family—please make plans to attend worship on that day as our Confirmands prepare to renew their Baptismal Covenant and to be received as full members of The Episcopal Church.

Thanksgiving Day at Good Shepherd

Come live the real meaning of the day by giving thanks to God as we celebrate Holy Eucharist Rite II at 10:00a on Thursday morning. Immediately following this worship service, join your friends for a Thanksgiving meal in the Parish Hall. Missy and Morgan Allen will provide the meat; you can bring a side! Please place your side dish in the refrigerator in the Kitchen on Wednesday. No need to register--just join the feast.

Christmas Giving Tree Arrives!

On November 29, we will raise the annual Christmas Giving Tree in the Parish Hall. This special tree will be decorated with ornaments describing families' needs and wishes. Please consider taking an ornament and providing for someone's Christmas this year.

Advent Series with Greg Garrett We Get to Carry Each Other: The Gospel According to U2

Beginning on the First Sunday of Advent, November 29, Good Shepherd will welcome again Dr. Greg Garrett to our new Christian Education hour at 6:30p, following our regular Koinonia worship at 5:00p, and our Community Supper at 6:00p. Greg will discuss his recent book We Get to Carry Each Other: The Gospel According to U2.

Speaking to U2's music and sacramental theology, Greg will teach how the group's music illustrates Christian belief, provides a compelling example of faithful community, and how Bono and the band teach us about the importance of justice. Participants need not read the book (or know anything about U2); Greg will show up with guitar in hand to introduce us to their lives and work.

Young Adults Have a Busy Week Ahead!

Good Shepherd's Young Adult Ministry is directed to members of our parish from age 22ish, to 35ish. While the group primarily serves singles and couples without children, all are welcome to participate.

Tomorrow, November 16 at 6:00p, we will participate in the Austin Area Young Adult Holiday Gathering, hosted by The Episcopal Diocese of Texas. Kick off your holiday season with fellow Episcopalians at Zax Pints and Plates (312 Barton Springs Road). The food will be furnished, while the drinks will be on you.

The group meets early on Tuesday mornings, from 7:00—8:30a, for coffee and conversation at Mozart's Coffee Roasters & Café (3825 Lake Austin Boulevard).

The Young Adults also meet monthly, on the third Thursday evening, for a Happy Hour at a local watering hole. This Thursday, November 19, they will meet at the Blanton Museum to enjoy some of the finest art Austin has to offer at the museum's Third Thursday Happy Hour. Their tour of the museum will highlight the works of the Italian Renaissance,

Advent Wreath-Making Event

The annual Advent Wreath Event on Sunday, November 29, is for all parishioners, ages 2 to 102!

Come to the Parish Hall after 9:00a worship to make your family's Advent wreath with ribbons, candles, and fresh greenery. Help us stay 'green' by reusing your plastic taper holders from seasons past.

*Almighty God, by your Holy Spirit you have made us one with your saints in heaven and on earth:
Grant that in our earthly pilgrimage
we may always be supported by this fellowship of love and prayer, and know ourselves to be surrounded by their witness to your power and mercy.
We ask this for the sake of Jesus Christ,
in whom all our intercessions are acceptable through the Spirit,
and who lives and reigns for ever and ever. Amen.*
