The Sunday of the Resurrection
Easter Day

APRIL 4, 2021

LETTER FROM THE RECTOR

WELCOME TO GOOD SHEPHERD!

Thank you for joining us for our worship service today. We are so glad to celebrate the joy of Easter Day with you! While I am grateful for the technology in order to remain connected over the past year and to keep our faith life nourished, I am glad this day has arrived where we can worship together in person. I encourage you to connect with friends following our service.

At this point, we are all getting back to the rhythm of a year ago. There is a relationship between sabbath and service, of taking time to reconnect with God and one another and to be of service in the greater community whether that is at work, volunteering in the community, or direct outreach programs. During our pandemic, every day felt like "Groundhog Day." There was little change from one day to the next. I would encourage you now, with our in-person worship, to make Sundays different by taking a sabbath. Disconnect with things that drive your life and reconnect with things that give you life and take this opportunity of awakening to see this Easter with new eyes. What do you see as we come back together?

As we practice a safe reopening, please know that we are carefully expanding attendance levels to maintain a safe worshipping environment. To this end, we ask you to RSVP for services, maintain social distancing and wear a mask while in attendance.

Much of this past year has been different, and yet I know God's Spirit has been deeply at work in us personally and as a community. I look forward to claiming these gifts of the Spirit and to build on them as we emerge from this pandemic. All of them are to help us be a light to the world. I look forward to increasing the difference we make as we live into God's call for our community.

Thank you for being a part of Good Shepherd. I am grateful for this time of worshipping and praying with you. Alleluia, Christ is Risen!

God's Peace,

The Rev. Channing Smith, Rector

IN-PERSON WORSHIP PROCEDURES:

MAKE A RESERVATION

To make a reservation, please go to our website: gsaustin.org. This helps to prevent us from exceeding capacity or needing to turn anyone away at the door for capacity reasons. In order to facilitate social distancing, attendance will be limited at our indoor services.

WEAR A MASK

You must wear a mask while on Good Shepherd's campus, including during the worship service.

PLEASE DO NOT ATTEND IN PERSON IF:

- You are not feeling well.
- You have been exposed to someone with COVID-19 in the last two weeks.

MODIFICATIONS TO OUR SERVICE:

- Please pass the peace while remaining socially distanced.
- We will not pass the offering plate. Please give at the plate located in the back of the church building, Parish Life Center or online at gsaustin.org.
- We will receive communion in one kind by distributing the bread. Our theology and tradition teach that receiving in one kind conveys the full benefit of the sacrament.

SALUTATION AND COLLECT OF THE DAY

Celebrant The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Let us pray.

Almighty God, who through your only begotten Son Jesus Christ overcame death and opened to us the gate of everlasting life: Grant that we, who celebrate with joy the day of the Lord's resurrection, may be raised from the death of sin by your life giving Spirit; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

People Amen.

The Lessons

FIRST READING Acts 10:34-43

Lector Peter began to speak to the gentiles: "I truly understand that God shows no partiality, but in every nation anyone who fears him and does what is right is acceptable to him. You know the message he sent to the people of Israel, preaching peace by Jesus Christ--he is Lord of all. That message spread throughout Judea, beginning in Galilee after the baptism that John announced: how God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Spirit and with power; how he went about doing good and healing all who were oppressed by the devil, for God was with him. We are witnesses to all that he did both in Judea and in Jerusalem. They put him to death by hanging him on a tree; but God raised him on the third day and allowed him to appear, not to all the people but to us who were chosen by God as witnesses, and who ate and drank with him after he rose from the dead. He commanded us to preach to the people and to testify that he is the one ordained by God as judge of the living and the dead. All the prophets testify about him that everyone who believes in him receives forgiveness of sins through his name." NRSV

The Word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

PSALM 118.1-2, 14-24

Choir 1 Give thanks to the Lord, for he is good; *
his mercy endures for ever.
2 Let Israel now proclaim, *
"His mercy endures for ever."
14 The Lord is my strength and my song, *
and he has become my salvation.
15 There is a sound of exultation and victory *
in the tents of the righteous:
16 "The right hand of the Lord has triumphed! *
the right hand of the Lord is exalted!
the right hand of the Lord has triumphed!"
17 I shall not die, but live, *
and declare the works of the Lord.
18 The Lord has punished me sorely, *
but he did not hand me over to death.

- 19 Open for me the gates of righteousness; *
I will enter them; I will offer thanks to the Lord.
- 20 "This is the gate of the Lord; *
he who is righteous may enter."
- 21 I will give thanks to you, for you answered me * and have become my salvation.
- 22 The same stone which the builders rejected * has become the chief cornerstone.
- 23 This is the Lord's doing, *
and it is marvelous in our eyes.
- 24 On this day the Lord has acted; *
we will rejoice and be glad in it.

SECOND READING 1 Corinthians 15:1-11

Lector I would remind you, brothers and sisters, of the good news that I proclaimed to you, which you in turn received, in which also you stand, through which also you are being saved, if you hold firmly to the message that I proclaimed to you—unless you have come to believe in vain. For I handed on to you as of first importance what I in turn had received: that Christ died for our sins in accordance with the scriptures, and that he was buried, and that he was raised on the third day in accordance with the scriptures, and that he appeared to Cephas, then to the twelve. Then he appeared to more than five hundred brothers and sisters at one time, most of whom are still alive, though some have died. Then he appeared to James, then to all the apostles. Last of all, as to one untimely born, he appeared also to me. For I am the least of the apostles, unfit to be called an apostle, because I persecuted the church of God. But by the grace of God I am what I am, and his grace toward me has not been in vain. On the contrary, I worked harder than any of them—though it was not I, but the grace of God that is with me. Whether then it was I or they, so we proclaim and so you have come to believe. NRSV Gospeller The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John.

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Gospeller Early on the first day of the week, while it was still dark, Mary Magdalene came to the tomb and saw that the stone had been removed from the tomb. So she ran and went to Simon Peter and the other disciple, the one whom Jesus loved, and said to them, "They have taken the Lord out of the tomb, and we do not know where they have laid him." Then Peter and the other disciple set out and went toward the tomb. The two were running together, but the other disciple outran Peter and reached the tomb first. He bent down to look in and saw the linen wrappings lying there, but he did not go in. Then Simon Peter came, following him, and went into the tomb. He saw the linen wrappings lying there, and the cloth that had been on Jesus' head, not lying with the linen wrappings but rolled up in a place by itself. Then the other disciple, who reached the tomb first, also went in, and he saw and believed; for as yet they did not understand the scripture, that he must rise from the dead. Then the disciples returned to their homes.

But Mary stood weeping outside the tomb. As she wept, she bent over to look into the tomb; and she saw two angels in white, sitting where the body of Jesus had been lying, one at the head and the other at the feet. They said to her, "Woman, why are you weeping?" She said to them, "They have taken away my Lord, and I do not know where they have laid him." When she had said this, she turned around and saw Jesus standing there, but she did not know that it was Jesus. Jesus said to her, "Woman, why are you weeping? Whom are you looking for?" Supposing him to be the gardener, she said to him, "Sir, if you have carried him away, tell me where you have laid him, and I will take him away." Jesus said to her, "Mary!" She turned and said to him in Hebrew, "Rabbouni!" (which means Teacher).

Jesus said to her, "Do not hold on to me, because I have not yet ascended to the Father. But go to my brothers and say to them, 'I am ascending to my Father and your Father, to my God and your God.'" Mary Magdalene went and announced to the disciples, "I have seen the Lord"; and she told them that he had said these things to her.

The Renewal of Baptismal Vows

9:00am, 11:00am & 1:00pm [6]

¶ All stand, as able.

Celebrant Through the Paschal mystery, dear friends, we are buried with Christ by Baptism into his death, and raised with him to newness of life. I invite you, therefore, now that our Lenten observance is ended, to renew the solemn promises and vows of Holy Baptism, by which we renounced Satan and all his works, and promised to serve God faithfully in his holy Catholic Church.

Celebrant Do you believe in God the Father?

All I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.

Celebrant Do you believe in Jesus Christ, the Son of God?

All I believe in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord.
He was conceived by the power of the Holy Spirit and born of the Virgin Mary.
He suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried.
He descended to the dead.
On the third day he rose again.
He ascended into heaven,
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again to judge the living and the dead.

Celebrant Do you believe in God the Holy Spirit?

All I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church,
the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting.

Celebrant Will you continue in the apostles' teaching and fellowship, in the breaking of bread, and in the prayers?

All I will, with God's help.

Celebrant Will you persevere in resisting evil, and, whenever you fall into sin, repent and return to the Lord?

All I will, with God's help.

Celebrant Will you proclaim by word and example the Good News of God in Christ?

All I will, with God's help.

Celebrant Will you seek and serve Christ in all persons, loving your neighbor as yourself?

All I will, with God's help.

Celebrant Will you strive for justice and peace among all people, and respect the dignity of every human being?

All I will, with God's help.

Celebrant This is the task of the Church.

All This is our task: to live and work for the kingdom of God.

We pray for those...

Prayers of the People

- Celebrant* Let us now join with all who praise the loving-kindness of almighty God this day, in praying for all of God's people, according to their needs.
- Intercessor* We give thanks for Marietta, Leland, Wells and all who have come through the waters of Baptism into the life of God's eternal kingdom; may we who strive to know and do God's will reveal the new life of God in Christ. Lord, in your mercy,
- People* Hear our prayer.
- Intercessor* We give thanks for those who struggle for peace and justice in the world; may they act with prudence and vision to plant the signs of God's reign on earth. Lord, in your mercy,
- People* Hear our prayer.
- Intercessor* For the unloved and the forgotten, the poor and the hungry, the sick and troubled, and all those in any need; (especially ...) May they know wholeness, and the peace of the risen Christ. Lord, in your mercy,
- People* Hear our prayer.
- Intercessor* We give thanks for those who, in every generation, resist and denounce violence; may the death and resurrection of Christ empower us to choose the pathways of peace and reconciliation. Lord, in your mercy,
- People* Hear our prayer.
- Intercessor* We give you thanks for those who have gone before us and who now rest from their labors especially those for whom we now pray... May we all gain a share in the fruits of Christ's victory. Lord, in your mercy,
- People* Hear our prayer.
- Intercessor* Eternal God, by your Holy Spirit sustain us, your people, to be hope and strength to the world, through Jesus Christ, our Savior. To him, to you, and to the Holy Spirit, be all honor and glory, now and for ever.
- People* Amen.

Celebrant All this we ask through your Son Jesus Christ.
By him, and with him, and in him,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit
all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever.

People AMEN.

THE LORD'S PRAYER

Celebrant And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,
All Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.

About Communion

All baptized Christians, including children, are welcome to receive Communion in The Episcopal Church. All worshippers are welcome to receive a blessing from a priest, during the distribution of Communion.

If you would like to know more about the Christian faith and the sacrament of Baptism, a member of the clergy would be very glad to speak with you.

Gluten-free wafers are available at the altar upon request.

If you are unable to reach the altar, please notify an usher, and Communion will be brought to you.
