The Second Sunday of Easter

APRIL 24, 2022

WELCOME

WORSHIP

The Holy Eucharist – readings from and responses to the Bible and the celebration of Holy Communion – is the central act of Sunday worship in the Episcopal Church. This leaflet contains the text and hymn references necessary to participate in this service. The hymnal is the blue book found in the pew racks. The page numbers to the right of some headings, while not necessary to participate in the service, refer to The Book of Common Prayer (red book) found in the pew racks.

RESTROOMS

Public restrooms are available in the narthex and the Parish Life Center atrium.

PARKING

In addition to on-campus parking, space is available (Sunday mornings only) at Tarrytown Shopping Center across Windsor and Wells Fargo Bank one block east on Windsor. If you park on a street, please be sure that you are not parked in a fire lane or blocking a driveway.

FOR MORE INFORMATION

If you are new to Good Shepherd or are interested in learning more about our community, please fill out a newcomer card located in the pew racks, narthex, or Parish Life Center atrium and drop it in the offering plate or hand it to an usher or clergy person. You can also fill out a newcomer card online at gsaustin.org > connect > let's connect.

Call the parish office at 512.476.3523 if you have questions about baptisms, weddings, membership, or any other needs.

ABOUT IN-PERSON WORSHIP

PRELUDE

ENTRANCE RITE

HYMN 178 Alleluia, alleluia, give thanks to the risen Lord

ALLELUIA NO. 1

OPENING ACCLAMATION AND COLLECT FOR PURITY

Celebrant Alleluia. Christ is risen.

People The Lord is risen indeed. Alleluia.

Celebrant Almighty God, to you all hearts are open, all desires known, and from you no secrets are hid: Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy Name; through Christ our Lord.

People Amen.

GLORIA

S 278

All Glory to God in the highest,
and peace to his people on earth.
Lord God, heavenly King,
almighty God and Father,
we worship you, we give you thanks,
we praise you for your glory.
Lord Jesus Christ, only Son of the Father, Lord God, Lamb of God,
you take away the sin of the world: have mercy on us;
you are seated at the right hand of the Father: receive our prayer.
For you alone are the Holy One,
you alone are the Lord,
you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ,
with the Holy Spirit,
in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

SALUTATION AND COLLECT OF THE DAY

(P.357)

Celebrant The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Let us pray.

Almighty and everlasting God, who in the Paschal mystery established the new covenant of reconciliation: Grant that all who have been reborn into the fellowship of Christ's Body may show forth in their lives what they profess by their faith; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever.

People Amen.

The Readings

READING 1 A reading from the book of Acts

5: 27-32

Lector When the temple police had brought the apostles, they had them stand before the council. The high priest questioned them, saying, "We gave you strict orders not to teach in this name, yet here you have filled Jerusalem with your teaching and you are determined to bring this man's blood on us." But Peter and the apostles answered, "We must obey God rather than any human authority. The God of our ancestors raised up Jesus, whom you had killed by hanging him on a tree. God exalted him at his right hand as Leader and Savior that he might give repentance to Israel and forgiveness of sins. And we are witnesses to these things, and so is the Holy Spirit whom God has given to those who obey him."

The Word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

PSALM

150

Choir 1 Hallelujah!

Praise God in his holy temple; *
praise him in the firmament of his power.

2 Praise him for his mighty acts; *
praise him for his excellent greatness.

3 Praise him with the blast of the ram's-horn; *
praise him with lyre and harp.

4 Praise him with timbrel and dance; *
praise him with strings and pipe.

5 Praise him with resounding cymbals; *
praise him with loud-clanging cymbals.

6 Let everything that has breath *
praise the LORD. Hallelujah!

John to the seven churches that are in Asia: Grace to you and peace from him who is and who was and who is to come, and from the seven spirits who are before his throne, and from Jesus Christ, the faithful witness, the firstborn of the dead, and the ruler of the kings of the earth. To him who loves us and freed us from our sins by his blood, and made us to be a kingdom, priests serving his God and Father, to him be glory and dominion forever and ever. Amen. Look! He is coming with the clouds; every eye will see him, even those who pierced him; and on his account all the tribes of the earth will wail. So it is to be. Amen. "I am the Alpha and the Omega," says the Lord God, who is and who was and who is to come, the Almighty.

The Word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

THE GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Cantor You believe in me, Thomas, because you have seen me, says the Lord;
blessed are they who have not seen me, but still believe!

THE GOSPEL

20: 19-31

Gospeller The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John.

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Gospeller When it was evening on that day, the first day of the week, and the doors of the house where the disciples had met were locked for fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood among them and said, "Peace be with you." After he said this, he showed them his hands and his side. Then the disciples rejoiced when they saw the Lord. Jesus said to them again, "Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, so I send you." When he had said this, he breathed on them and said to them, "Receive the Holy Spirit. If you forgive the sins of any, they are forgiven them; if you retain the sins of any, they are retained."

But Thomas (who was called the Twin), one of the twelve, was not with them when Jesus came. So the other disciples told him, "We have seen the Lord." But he said to them, "Unless I see the mark of the nails in his hands, and put my finger in the mark of the nails and my hand in his side, I will not believe."

A week later his disciples were again in the house, and Thomas was with them. Although the doors were shut, Jesus came and stood among them and said, "Peace be with you." Then he said to Thomas, "Put your finger here and see my hands. Reach out your hand and put it in my side. Do not doubt but believe." Thomas answered him, "My Lord and my God!" Jesus said to him, "Have you believed because you have seen me? Blessed are those who have not seen and yet have come to believe."

Now Jesus did many other signs in the presence of his disciples, which are not written in this book. But these are written so that you may come to believe that Jesus is the Messiah, the Son of God, and that through believing you may have life in his name.

The Gospel of the Lord.

People Praise to you, Lord Christ.

All We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen.
 We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father,
 God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one Being with the Father.
 Through him all things were made.
 For us and for our salvation, he came down from heaven:
 by the power of the Holy Spirit
 he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary,
 and was made man.
 For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
 he suffered death and was buried.
 On the third day he rose again
 in accordance with the Scriptures;
 he ascended into heaven
 and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
 He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
 and his kingdom will have no end.
 We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
 who proceeds from the Father and the Son.
 With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified.
 He has spoken through the Prophets.
 We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
 We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
 We look for the resurrection of the dead,
 and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Celebrant: Let us pray for all God's people, according to their needs.

Leader: That amid those doubts which always threaten the community of faith, Christ's peace may be shared and experienced for the strengthening of belief, let us pray to the Lord.

People: Lord, have mercy.

Leader: That all who have come to new birth in holy baptism and all who have received the forgiveness of sins in absolution may live in peace with each other, let us pray to the Lord.

People: Lord, have mercy.

Leader: That the sick, the infirm, and the unsettled, especially might experience the healing power of the Spirit of the risen Christ, let us pray to the Lord.

People: Lord, have mercy.

Leader: That those who participate in the Eucharistic meal may taste and see the feast to come in the presence of the One who died and is alive forevermore, let us pray to the Lord.

People: Lord, have mercy.

Leader: That all who have died in the faith, may serve as examples to us who continue in our pilgrimage on earth, especially let us pray to the Lord.

People: Lord, have mercy.

Celebrant: Lord, we believe. Help our unbelief, and hear us for the sake of the one who died for our sins and rose again for our justification, even Jesus Christ, the first and the last, the living one, in whose name we pray.

All: Amen.

The Peace

Celebrant: The peace of the Lord be always with you.

Celebrant ...Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:

All Christ has died.

Christ is risen.

Christ will come again.

THE LORD'S PRAYER

Celebrant And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

All Our Father, who art in heaven,

hallowed be thy Name,

thy kingdom come, thy will be done,

on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread.

And forgive us our trespasses,

as we forgive those who trespass against us.

And lead us not into temptation,

but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory,

for ever and ever. Amen.

THE POST-COMMUNION PRAYER

Celebrant Let us pray.

All Almighty and everliving God,
we thank you for feeding us with the spiritual food of the most precious Body and Blood of your Son our Savior Jesus Christ; and for assuring us in these holy mysteries that we are living members of the Body of your Son, and heirs of your eternal kingdom.
And now, Father, send us out to do the work you have given us to do, to love and serve you as faithful witnesses of Christ our Lord.
To him, to you, and to the Holy Spirit,
be honor and glory, now and for ever. Amen.

THE SOLEMN BENEDICTION

Celebrant Almighty God, who redeemed us through the resurrection of his Christ and has brought us out of slavery to sin into everlasting freedom, give you joy and peace in faith, and bring you to your eternal inheritance, And the blessing of God Almighty, ✙ Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, be upon you, and remain with you always.

About Communion

We are an open and inclusive community, committed to the unity of Christ's Body, the Church, and to welcoming all to the Table of the Lord. Gluten free wafers are always available.

If you do not wish to receive Communion but would like to receive a blessing, please come forward and cross your arms against your chest.

Liturgy Notes – The Paschal Candle

From Holy Saturday night throughout the entire Easter Season, the Paschal Candle occupies a place of honor in the sanctuary and is lit for all services. During the Great Vigil, the Candle was solemnly inscribed and lit in a ceremony dating back at least to the second century. The congregation lit their small candles from it as it was carried into the darkened church, and the ancient hymn, the Exsultet, was intoned. That hymn sings of “a flame divided, but undimmed, a pillar of fire that glows to the honor of God”. It goes on to pray that it might mingle with the lights of heaven and continue “bravely burning to dispel the darkness of this night. May the Morning Star which never sets, find this flame still burning: Christ, that Morning Star, who came back from the dead, and shed his peaceful light on all mankind”.

The symbolism of the Candle is related to the baptismal liturgy which traditionally accompanies the Great Vigil: it seems that as early as the Letter to the Hebrews, Christians understood Baptism as “being illuminated.” At Easter, the returning Risen Christ, the ‘true light which enlightens everyone,’ stands surrounded by His illuminated disciples, the newly baptized, each holding their own candle.

The Paschal Candle bears several traditional markings: during the Vigil it is inscribed with a cross and the numbers of the current year. We know from the great English monk and historian, Bede the Venerable, that this was customary at least by the end of the seventh century. While inscribing these marks, the celebrant says “Christ yesterday and today, the beginning and the end, Alpha and Omega. All time belongs to him, and all the ages. To him be glory and power, through every age and forever”. Nails, representing the wounds of Christ still evident in his risen body, are inserted into the candle, accompanied by the prayer “By his holy and glorious wounds, may Christ our Lord guard us and keep us. Amen.”

In medieval times the Paschal Candle became exaggerated: at Salisbury Cathedral, the candle was required to be thirty-six feet high, while Westminster Abbey’s candle required three hundred pounds of wax! These candles were customarily melted down at the end of the season and used to make tapers for the funerals of the poor. The candle stands also became significant works of art, many of which still survive.

Our own candle is of more modest proportions and simply decorated, but marked and inscribed in the ancient manner. It will remain on the sanctuary until Pentecost, and then reappear only for Baptisms and for funerals, when we pray that the baptized will know eternal rest, and that the light of the Risen Christ will shine on them forever.
