The Readings

READING I A reading from the book of Acts

16: 9-15

Lector During the night Paul had a vision: there stood a man of Macedonia pleading with him and saying, "Come over to Macedonia and help us." When he had seen the vision, we immediately tried to cross over to Macedonia, being convinced that God had called us to proclaim the good news to them.

We set sail from Troas and took a straight course to Samothrace, the following day to Neapolis, and from there to Philippi, which is a leading city of the district of Macedonia and a Roman colony. We remained in this city for some days. On the sabbath day we went outside the gate by the river, where we supposed there was a place of prayer; and we sat down and spoke to the women who had gathered there. A certain woman named Lydia, a worshiper of God, was listening to us; she was from the city of Thyatira and a dealer in purple cloth. The Lord opened her heart to listen eagerly to what was said by Paul. When she and her household were baptized, she urged us, saying, "If you have judged me to be faithful to the Lord, come and stay at my home." And she prevailed upon us.

The Word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

PSALM 67 Laudate Dominum

Choir 1 May God be merciful to us and bless us, show us the light of his countenance and come to us.
2 Let your ways be known upon earth,
your saving health among all nations.
3 Let the peoples praise you, O God;
let all the peoples praise you.
4 Let the nations be glad and sing for joy,
for you judge the peoples with equity
and guide all the nations upon earth.
5 Let the peoples praise you, O God;
let all the peoples praise you.
6 The earth has brought forth her increase;
may God, our own God, give us his blessing.
7 May God give us his blessing,
and may all the ends of the earth stand in awe of him.

In the spirit the angel carried me away to a great, high mountain and showed me the holy city Jerusalem coming down out of heaven from God.

I saw no temple in the city, for its temple is the Lord God the Almighty and the Lamb. And the city has no need of sun or moon to shine on it, for the glory of God is its light, and its lamp is the Lamb. The nations will walk by its light, and the kings of the earth will bring their glory into it. Its gates will never be shut by day-- and there will be no night there. People will bring into it the glory and the honor of the nations. But nothing unclean will enter it, nor anyone who practices abomination or falsehood, but only those who are written in the Lamb's book of life.

Then the angel showed me the river of the water of life, bright as crystal, flowing from the throne of God and of the Lamb through the middle of the street of the city. On either side of the river is the tree of life with its twelve kinds of fruit, producing its fruit each month; and the leaves of the tree are for the healing of the nations. Nothing accursed will be found there any more. But the throne of God and of the Lamb will be in it, and his servants will worship him; they will see his face, and his name will be on their foreheads. And there will be no more night; they need no light of lamp or sun, for the Lord God will be their light, and they will reign forever and ever.

The Word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

THE GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Cantor Whoever loves me will keep my word, says the Lord;
and my Father will love him and we will come to him.

THE GOSPEL

5: 1-9

Gospeller The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John.

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Gospeller After Jesus healed the son of the official in Capernaum, there was a festival of the Jews, and Jesus went up to Jerusalem.

Now in Jerusalem by the Sheep Gate there is a pool, called in Hebrew Beth-zatha, which has five porticoes. In these lay many invalids-- blind, lame, and paralyzed. One man was there who had been ill for thirty-eight years. When Jesus saw him lying there and knew that he had been there a long time, he said to him, "Do you want to be made well?" The sick man answered him, "Sir, I have no one to put me into the pool when the water is stirred up; and while I am making my way, someone else steps down ahead of me." Jesus said to him, "Stand up, take your mat and walk." At once the man was made well, and he took up his mat and began to walk. Now that day was a sabbath.

The Gospel of the Lord.

People Praise to you, Lord Christ.

Celebrant Let us profess our faith.

All We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen.
 We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God,
 eternally begotten of the Father,
 God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God,
 begotten, not made, of one Being with the Father.
 Through him all things were made.
 For us and for our salvation, he came down from heaven:
 by the power of the Holy Spirit
 he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary,
 and was made man.
 For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
 he suffered death and was buried.
 On the third day he rose again
 in accordance with the Scriptures;
 he ascended into heaven
 and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
 He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
 and his kingdom will have no end.
 We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
 who proceeds from the Father and the Son.
 With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified.
 He has spoken through the Prophets.
 We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
 We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
 We look for the resurrection of the dead,
 and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Celebrant: In peace, let us pray for the needs of the Church and the world.

Leader: Immortal God, we pray for your holy Catholic Church,

People: That we all may be one.

Leader: We pray for Andy, Jeff, Hector and Kai, our bishops,

Leader: We pray for those who govern and hold authority in the nations of the world.

People: That there may be justice and peace on the earth.

Leader: We pray for those who control the resources of the earth,

People: That they may act with wisdom and foresight

Leader: We give thanks for the gift of creation.

People: May we respect and protect its richness and diversity

Leader: Have compassion onFor all who suffer from any grief or trouble,

People: May they be delivered from their distress.

Leader: Give to the departed eternal rest.

People: Let perpetual light shine upon them.

Leader: Let us pray for our own needs and those of others.

¶ Silence

Liturgy Notes – Orientation

The different Resurrection accounts we have heard in these past weeks all agree on at least one detail: they all associate Jesus rising from the dead with the rising of the sun. The symbolism of dawn profoundly influenced not only early church theology and spirituality, it also shaped liturgical practice. Just as the rising sun, banishing darkness and flooding the earth with warmth and light, heralded the beginning of a new day, so the appearance of Jesus, the 'sun of justice', signaled a new age of grace and reconciliation. This natural symbolism was particularly evocative at Easter, when the first rays of dawn heralded the climax of the long Vigil hours and the exhaustive rites of Christian initiation. The newly baptized were now finally permitted to join their already illuminated brothers and sisters for the Easter Eucharist. So pervasive was the custom of turning to the east for prayer that early Christians were frequently thought to worship the sun. One of the great Fathers of the Eastern Church, Saint Basil, explained, "We look to the east, but there are only a few who know that we are searching for an ancient homeland, Paradise, which God planted in Eden, in the east."

When Christians finally won the freedom to construct worship spaces of their own, they naturally faced them towards the east. The presider joined the congregation in facing an altar fixed to the wall, and only turned toward for greetings and the blessing. Even to this day, the wall the congregation faces is always referred to as the east wall, no matter what its direction. However, older worship spaces, the formerly secular basilicas which the burgeoning Christian community had come to occupy, had never been 'oriented': In those ancient buildings the custom survived of the celebrant standing behind the altar, facing the congregation for the entire service.

Whether by accident or design, Good Shepherd was constructed on an east west axis, so that generations of parishioners have followed the custom of our ancestors in the faith. Older members of the congregation will recall the altar being fixed to the back wall and the priest celebrating 'back to the people'; it was only about forty years ago that the altar was moved forward in response to the worldwide Liturgical Movement and the demands of the 1979 Prayer Book. Now as before, however, with Origen "we pray to the east, the origin of light".
