Priest Blessed be God: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

People And blessed be his kingdom, now and forever. Amen.

Priest There is one Body and one Spirit;

People There is one hope in God's call to us;

GLORIA S278

William Mathias

All Glory to God in the highest, and peace to his people on earth.

Lord God, heavenly King,
almighty God and Father,
we worship you, we give you thanks,
we praise you for your glory.

Lord Jesus Christ, only Son of the Father, Lord God, Lamb of God,
you take away the sin of the world: have mercy on us;
you are seated at the right hand of the Father: receive our prayer.

For you alone are the Holy One,
you alone are the Lord,
you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ,
with the Holy Spirit,
in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

SALUTATION AND COLLECT OF THE DAY

(P.357)

Celebrant The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Let us pray.

O God, because without you we are not able to please you, mercifully grant that your Holy Spirit may in all things direct and rule our hearts; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

People Amen.

The Readings

READING I A reading from the Prophet Jeremiah

4: 11-12, 22-28

Lector At that time it will be said to this people and to Jerusalem: A hot wind comes from me out of the bare heights in the desert toward my poor people, not to winnow or cleanse-- a wind too strong for that. Now it is I who speak in judgment against them.

“For my people are foolish,
they do not know me;
they are stupid children,
they have no understanding.
They are skilled in doing evil,
but do not know how to do good.”
I looked on the earth, and lo, it was waste and void;
and to the heavens, and they had no light.
I looked on the mountains, and lo, they were quaking,
and all the hills moved to and fro.
I looked, and lo, there was no one at all,
and all the birds of the air had fled.
I looked, and lo, the fruitful land was a desert,
and all its cities were laid in ruins
before the LORD, before his fierce anger.
For thus says the LORD: The whole land shall be a desolation;
yet I will not make a full end.
Because of this the earth shall mourn,
and the heavens above grow black;
for I have spoken, I have purposed;
I have not relented nor will I turn back.

The Word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

PSALM 14 Dixit insipiens

Choir 1 The fool has said in his heart, “There is no God.” *
All are corrupt and commit abominable acts;
there is none who does any good.
2 The LORD looks down from heaven upon us all, *
to see if there is any who is wise,
if there is one who seeks after God.
3 Every one has proved faithless;
all alike have turned bad; *
there is none who does good; no, not one.
4 Have they no knowledge, all those evildoers *
who eat up my people like bread and do not call upon the LORD?
5 See how they tremble with fear, *
because God is in the company of the righteous.
6 Their aim is to confound the plans of the afflicted, *
but the LORD is their refuge.
7 Oh, that Israel’s deliverance would come out of Zion! *
when the LORD restores the fortunes of his people, Jacob will rejoice and Israel be glad.

I am grateful to Christ Jesus our Lord, who has strengthened me, because he judged me faithful and appointed me to his service, even though I was formerly a blasphemer, a persecutor, and a man of violence. But I received mercy because I had acted ignorantly in unbelief, and the grace of our Lord overflowed for me with the faith and love that are in Christ Jesus. The saying is sure and worthy of full acceptance, that Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners-- of whom I am the foremost. But for that very reason I received mercy, so that in me, as the foremost, Jesus Christ might display the utmost patience, making me an example to those who would come to believe in him for eternal life. To the King of the ages, immortal, invisible, the only God, be honor and glory forever and ever. Amen.

The Word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

THE GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Cantor, then all:

Cantor God was reconciling the world to himself in Christ and entrusting to us the message of salvation.

THE GOSPEL

15: 1-10

Gospeller The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke.

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Gospeller All the tax collectors and sinners were coming near to listen to Jesus. And the Pharisees and the scribes were grumbling and saying, "This fellow welcomes sinners and eats with them."

So he told them this parable: "Which one of you, having a hundred sheep and losing one of them, does not leave the ninety-nine in the wilderness and go after the one that is lost until he finds it? When he has found it, he lays it on his shoulders and rejoices. And when he comes home, he calls together his friends and neighbors, saying to them, 'Rejoice with me, for I have found my sheep that was lost.' Just so, I tell you, there will be more joy in heaven over one sinner who repents than over ninety-nine righteous persons who need no repentance.

"Or what woman having ten silver coins, if she loses one of them, does not light a lamp, sweep the house, and search carefully until she finds it? When she has found it, she calls together her friends and neighbors, saying, 'Rejoice with me, for I have found the coin that I had lost.' Just so, I tell you, there is joy in the presence of the angels of God over one sinner who repents."

The Gospel of the Lord.

People Praise to you, Lord Christ.

The altar flowers

The altar flowers are given to the glory of God and in honor of our baptism candidates.

We thank you, Father, for the water of Baptism.
 In it we are buried with Christ in his death.
 By it we share in his resurrection.
 Through it we are reborn by the Holy Spirit.
 Therefore in joyful obedience to your Son,
 we bring into his fellowship those who come to him in faith,
 baptizing them in the Name of the Father,
 and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.

¶ At the following words, the Priest touches the water

Now sanctify this water, we pray you, by the power of your Holy Spirit, that those who here are cleansed from sin and born again
 may continue for ever in the risen life of Jesus Christ our Savior.
 To him, to you, and to the Holy Spirit, be all honor and glory, now and for ever.

People Amen.

THE BAPTISM

¶ Each candidate is presented by name to the Celebrant, who then pours water upon the candidate, saying

Priest <N.>, I baptize you in the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.
People Amen.

¶ The Priest then marks the newly baptized's forehead with chrism oil, making the sign of the cross.

Priest <N.>, you are sealed by the Holy Spirit in Baptism and marked as Christ's own for ever.

People Amen.

¶ After the Baptism the Priest gives to the newly baptized a candle lighted from the Paschal Candle.

Priest The light of Christ.

People Thanks be to God.

Priest Let us pray.

Heavenly Father, we thank you that by water and the Holy Spirit you have bestowed upon these your servants the forgiveness of sin, and have raised them to the new life of grace.
 Sustain them, O Lord, in your Holy Spirit.
 Give them an inquiring and discerning heart,
 the courage to will and to persevere,
 a spirit to know and to love you,
 and the gift of joy and wonder in all your works.

People Amen.

¶ The Priest then says to congregation

Priest Let us welcome the newly baptized.

People We receive you into the household of God.
 Confess the faith of Christ crucified,

Liturgy Notes: Actions and Gestures, Part II

Bowing is one of the most ancient and yet still most common of ritual actions performed by both celebrant and congregation. The Book of Exodus equates bowing with recognizing the power and majesty of God, and the Psalms agree: “All the nations you have made shall come to bow before you, Lord, and give honor to your name.” (Ps 86:9) We know that as early as the fourth century, the deacon called out to the congregation, “Bow your heads to receive God’s blessing” (Apostolic Constitutions) and that in the sixth century the great Bishop of Arles, St Cesaire, instructed his flock, “Each time the deacon invites you with a loud voice to pray, bow faithfully not only your heart but also your body” (Sermon 77). Bowing clearly and wordlessly expresses reverence and respect toward a person or object.

There are two forms of bowing in the liturgy. A simple bow of the head is usually made at the mention of the divine names, particularly at the name of “Jesus”. Some people bow towards the processional cross when it passes by, and towards the altar when they enter or leave the church, or move across the sanctuary. It is also common to bow at the mention of the word ‘worship’ during the Gloria, to simply emphasize the meaning of what is being said.

A profound bow, made with the torso from the waist up, is more normally made by the celebrant: toward the altar at the beginning and end of the liturgy, and toward the Sacrament at the end of the Eucharistic Prayer. Celebrant and congregation may also bow profoundly at the mention of the Incarnation in the Creed, “For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven: by the power of the Holy Spirit he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary, and was made man”, and during the doxology, when the three names of the Trinity are mentioned together in praise. Whereas the simple bow is a sign of respect, the profound bow is more expressive of adoration.

It probably does not need to be stressed that, for the congregation, these are personal actions, to be used by those who find them helpful for engaging their hearts and minds in the meaning of the liturgy. They are optional, by no means mandatory; they are intended to help, to be used as individuals wish.

MINISTRY FAIR

Join us for our ministry fair after the 10:30a services on the Windsor campus. We'll have information about all of our ministries for you, and we hope this is a way for you to find out about the ways you want to be involved in the parish. The more you invest and connect here - with your time, your involvement, your giving - the more your experience here will be transformative. Come and see how your unique gifts guide you to 'take your place' in the life of the church.

TRINITY STREETS

At Trinity Streets, we serve up to 40-65 people coming in off the streets of downtown Austin. Volunteers prepare meals, serve the meals, and host a worship service for those coming to Trinity Center. ## HOW DO WE CONSIDER ETHICAL ISSUES AND DIFFICULT DECISIONS?

Dr. Scott Bader-Saye will present a faith-based framework for making difficult ethical decisions and will discuss what we might consider as we seek a position we are comfortable with or seek to understand the reasons why a particular position seems right to us. Dr. Bader-Saye is the Academic Dean and Professor of Christian Ethics and Moral Theology at the Seminary of the Southwest. This is the first of two topical forums considering issues around the recent U.S. Supreme Court decision regarding abortion. These forums will let us explore difficult issues in an environment of respect and curiosity. Neither the parish nor the presenters will advocate for a particular position. To attend, join us at 6:30p on the Windsor campus, Parish Life Center.
