Celebrant Let us pray.

People Amen.

About today's service

In the New Testament, the word "saints" is used to describe the entire membership of the Christian community. From very early times, however, the word "saint" came to be applied primarily to those individuals whose lives of Christian witness had been formally recognized by the church. Beginning in the tenth century, it became customary to set aside another day on which the church remembered the wider fellowship of the deceased who are no less saints. It was also a day for particular remembrance of family members and friends. At Good Shepherd, we commemorate the Feast of All Souls today with a liturgy that incorporates elements of a traditional burial rite and a reading of the necrology, a list of those beloved by the community who have died.

About the music

The Requiem Mass setting you will hear today was written by American Composer Morten Lauridsen. It is adapted from his Lux Aeterna, which was premiered in concert by the Los Angeles Master Chorale in April of 1997. In this work, Lauridsen makes use of a number of pre-existing themes, ranging from Gregorian Chant fragments to Lutheran Chorale melodies. Many of his compositional procedures here stem from those of the Middle Ages and Renaissance, but with a tonal palette which is fresh, contemporary and highly accessible to the casual listener.

Today's Readings

Deuteronomy 6:1-9 Deuteronomy is a later reflection in Jewish literature on the meaning of the Exodus and the call to love God exclusively.

Hebrews 9:11-14 The writer continues the theme of Christ as High Priest. Christ offers himself as the sacrificial victim in the inner sanctum of the temple, or tent of meeting.

Mark 12:28-34 Jesus declares the essence of the Law is summed up in two quotations—one from Deuteronomy and the other from Leviticus.

Short Introductions to the Bible Readings for the Revised Common Lectionary.

The Lessons

READING I A reading from the book of Deuteronomy

6: 1-9

Lector Moses said: Now this is the commandment--the statutes and the ordinances--that the LORD your God charged me to teach you to observe in the land that you are about to cross into and occupy, so that you and your children and your children's children, may fear the LORD your God all the days of your life, and keep all his decrees and his commandments that I am commanding you, so that your days may be long. Hear therefore, O Israel, and observe them diligently, so that it may go well with you, and so that you may multiply greatly in a land flowing with milk and honey, as the LORD, the God of your ancestors, has promised you.

Hear, O Israel: The LORD is our God, the LORD alone. You shall love the LORD your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your might. Keep these words that I am commanding you today in your heart. Recite them to your children and talk about them when you are at home and when you are away, when you lie down and when you rise. Bind them as a sign on your hand, fix them as an emblem on your forehead, and write them on the doorposts of your house and on your gates.

The Word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

PSALM 119: 1-8 Beati immaculati

Choir Happy are they whose way is blameless, who walk in the law of the LORD!
Happy are they who observe his decrees
and seek him with all their hearts!
Who never do any wrong,
but always walk in his ways.
You laid down your commandments,
that we should fully keep them.
Oh, that my ways were made so direct that I might keep your statutes!
Then I should not be put to shame,
when I regard all your commandments.
I will thank you with an unfeigned heart,
when I have learned your righteous judgments.
I will keep your statutes;
do not utterly forsake me.

Lector When Christ came as a high priest of the good things that have come, then through the greater and perfect tent (not made with hands, that is, not of this creation), he entered once for all into the Holy Place, not with the blood of goats and calves, but with his own blood, thus obtaining eternal redemption. For if the blood of goats and bulls, with the sprinkling of the ashes of a heifer, sanctifies those who have been defiled so that their flesh is purified, how much more will the blood of Christ, who through the eternal Spirit offered himself without blemish to God, purify our conscience from dead works to worship the living God!

The Word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

THE GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Cantor Whoever loves me will keep my word, says the Lord;
and my Father will love him and we will come to him.

THE GOSPEL

12: 28-34

Gospeller The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Mark.

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Gospeller One of the scribes came near and heard the Saducees disputing with one another, and seeing that Jesus answered them well, he asked him, "Which commandment is the first of all?" Jesus answered, "The first is, 'Hear, O Israel: the Lord our God, the Lord is one; you shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your mind, and with all your strength.' The second is this, 'You shall love your neighbor as yourself.' There is no other commandment greater than these." Then the scribe said to him, "You are right, Teacher; you have truly said that 'he is one, and besides him there is no other'; and 'to love him with all the heart, and with all the understanding, and with all the strength,' and 'to love one's neighbor as oneself,' —this is much more important than all whole burnt offerings and sacrifices." When Jesus saw that he answered wisely, he said to him, "You are not far from the kingdom of God." After that no one dared to ask him any question.

The Gospel of the Lord.

People Praise to you, Lord Christ.

Celebrant In the assurance of eternal life given at Baptism,
 let us proclaim our faith and say,
All I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.
 I believe in Jesus Christ, his only son, our Lord.
 He was conceived by the power of the Holy Spirit and born of the Virgin Mary.
 He suffered under Pontius Pilate,
 was crucified, died, and was buried.
 He descended to the dead.
 On the third day he rose again.
 He ascended into heaven,
 and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
 He will come again to judge the living and the dead.
 I believe in the Holy Spirit,
 the holy catholic Church,
 the communion of saints,
 the forgiveness of sins,
 the resurrection of the body,
 and the life everlasting. Amen.
