

THE HOLY EUCHARIST

10:30A

The Twentieth Sunday after Pentecost

OCTOBER 10, 2021

OUR IN-PERSON PROCEDURES HAVE CHANGED.

YOU NO LONGER NEED A RESERVATION TO COME TO WORSHIP.

MASKS

Masks are welcome, and we strongly encourage you to wear a mask indoors. Masks are required for those who are not fully vaccinated.

PLEASE DO NOT ATTEND IN PERSON IF:

- You are not feeling well.
- You have been exposed to someone with COVID-19 in the last two weeks.

MODIFICATIONS TO OUR SERVICE:

- Please pass the peace while remaining socially distanced.
- At communion we will distribute the bread. While cases are elevated in our community, we will not receive from the chalice. Our tradition teaches us that receiving in one kind – either the bread or the wine – conveys the full benefit of the sacrament.

WELCOME

WORSHIP

The Holy Eucharist – readings from and responses to the Bible and the celebration of Holy Communion – is the central act of Sunday worship in the Episcopal Church. This leaflet contains the text and hymn references necessary to participate in this service. The hymnal is the blue book found in the pew racks. The page numbers to the right of some headings, while not necessary to participate in the service, refer to The Book of Common Prayer (red book) found in the pew racks.

RESTROOMS

Public restrooms are available in the narthex and the Parish Life Center atrium.

PARKING

In addition to on-campus parking, space is available (Sunday mornings only) at Tarrytown Shopping Center across Windsor and Wells Fargo Bank one block east on Windsor. If you park on a street, please be sure that you are not parked in a fire lane or blocking a driveway.

FOR MORE INFORMATION

If you are new to Good Shepherd or are interested in learning more about our community, please fill out a newcomer card located in the pew racks, narthex, or Parish Life Center atrium and drop it in the offering plate or hand it to an usher or clergy person. You can also fill out a newcomer card online at gsaustin.org > connect > let's connect.

Call the parish office at 512.476.3523 if you have questions about baptisms, weddings, membership, or any other needs.

Today's Readings

Amos 5:6-7, 10-15 Amos, an 8th century BC shepherd and prophet, denounces those who ignore the plight of the poor and fail to honor and live by God's justice and mercy.

Hebrews 4:12-16 This passage affirms for Christian Jews, not living in Israel, the humble status of Jesus, the incarnate one, who is also their great high priest, greater than the tabernacle and temple priests of Judaism.

Mark 10:17-31 Jesus declares that the accruing of wealth and status does not signal a closer relationship with God.

—Bennett, Bill

Short Introductions to the Bible Readings for the Revised Common Lectionary.

FIRST READING A Reading from the book of Amos

5: 6-7, 10-15

Lector Seek the LORD and live, or he will break out against the house of Joseph like fire,
and it will devour Bethel, with no one to quench it.
Ah, you that turn justice to wormwood,
and bring righteousness to the ground!
They hate the one who reproves in the gate,
and they abhor the one who speaks the truth.
Therefore, because you trample on the poor and take from them levies of grain,
you have built houses of hewn stone,
but you shall not live in them;
you have planted pleasant vineyards,
but you shall not drink their wine.
For I know how many are your transgressions,
and how great are your sins—
you who afflict the righteous, who take a bribe,
and push aside the needy in the gate.
Therefore the prudent will keep silent in such a time;
for it is an evil time.

The Word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

PSALM 90: 12-17 Domine, refugium

Choir So teach us to number our days *
that we may apply our hearts to wisdom.
Return, O LORD; how long will you tarry? *
be gracious to your servants.
Satisfy us by your loving-kindness in the morning; *
so shall we rejoice and be glad all the days of our life.
Make us glad by the measure of the days that you afflicted us * and the years in which we suffered adversity.
Show your servants your works *
and your splendor to their children.
May the graciousness of the LORD our God be upon us; *
prosper the work of our hands;
prosper our handiwork.

NRSV

Lector The word of God is living and active, sharper than any two-edged sword, piercing until it divides soul from spirit, joints from marrow; it is able to judge the thoughts and intentions of the heart. And before him no creature is hidden, but all are naked and laid bare to the eyes of the one to whom we must render an account.

Since, then, we have a great high priest who has passed through the heavens, Jesus, the Son of God, let us hold fast to our confession. For we do not have a high priest who is unable to sympathize with our weaknesses, but we have one who in every respect has been tested as we are, yet without sin. Let us therefore approach the throne of grace with boldness, so that we may receive mercy and find grace to help in time of need.

NRSV

People Thanks be to God.

THE GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Cantor Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

THE GOSPEL

Mark 10: 17-31

Gospeller The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Mark.

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Gospeller As Jesus was setting out on a journey, a man ran up and knelt before him, and asked him, "Good Teacher, what must I do to inherit eternal life?" Jesus said to him, "Why do you call me good? No one is good but God alone. You know the commandments: 'You shall not murder; You shall not commit adultery; You shall not steal; You shall not bear false witness; You shall not defraud; Honor your father and mother.'" He said to him, "Teacher, I have kept all these since my youth." Jesus, looking at him, loved him and said, "You lack one thing; go, sell what you own, and give the money to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven; then come, follow me." When he heard this, he was shocked and went away grieving, for he had many possessions.

Then Jesus looked around and said to his disciples, "How hard it will be for those who have wealth to enter the kingdom of God!" And the disciples were perplexed at these words. But Jesus said to them again, "Children, how hard it is to enter the kingdom of God! It is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for someone who is rich to enter the kingdom of God." They were greatly astounded and said to one another, "Then who can be saved?" Jesus looked at them and said, "For mortals it is impossible, but not for God; for God all things are possible."

Peter began to say to him, "Look, we have left everything and followed you." Jesus said, "Truly I tell you, there is no one who has left house or brothers or sisters or mother or father or children or fields, for my sake and for the sake of the good news, who will not receive a hundredfold now in this age—houses, brothers and sisters, mothers and children, and fields with persecutions—and in the age to come eternal life. But many who are first will be last, and the last will be first."

Celebrant Let us profess our faith.

All We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen.
 We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father,
 God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God,
 begotten, not made, of one Being with the Father.
 Through him all things were made.
 For us and for our salvation, he came down from heaven:
 by the power of the Holy Spirit
 he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary,
 and was made man.
 For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
 he suffered death and was buried.
 On the third day he rose again
 in accordance with the Scriptures;
 he ascended into heaven
 and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
 He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
 and his kingdom will have no end.
 We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
 who proceeds from the Father and the Son.
 With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified.
 He has spoken through the Prophets.
 We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
 We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
 We look for the resurrection of the dead,
 and the life of the world to come. Amen.

The Prayers of the People

Celebrant: In prayer let us call on God, from whom all good things come.

Leader: For refugees and asylum seekers, for the victims of war and conflict, for those fleeing abuse and domestic violence, that they may find refuge and security, and know justice and peace. Lord, in your mercy,

All: Hear our prayer.

Leader For those who serve God's people in leadership; for Andy, Jeff, Hector, Kai, and all bishops, priests and deacons. By their words and deeds may they usher in the reign of God. Lord, in your mercy,

All: Hear our prayer.

Leader: For all who guide and oversee peoples and nations: may they govern according to the wisdom that comes from God, to whom they must one day render an account.

Lord, in your mercy,

All: Hear our prayer.

Leader: For the safety and well-being of all who work to alleviate the world's suffering: may they meet with respect, and know the rewards for their labor. Lord, in your mercy,

All: Hear our prayer.

Leader: For those in failing health, those in need or any type of difficulty, especially
May God's wisdom encourage them and the care of family and friends comfort them.
Lord, in your mercy,

All: Hear our prayer.

Leader: For all those who lived the Gospel in this life: may they receive eternal life in the age to come. Lord, in your mercy,

All: Hear our prayer.

Celebrant: Pierce our inmost heart with the two-edged sword of your word, O God, and enlighten us with holy wisdom, that we may recognize and ever seek the incomparable treasures of your kingdom, through Christ, our Lord.

All: Amen.

The Confession and Absolution

Celebrant: Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.

People: Most merciful God,
we confess that we have sinned against you
in thought, word, and deed,
by what we have done, and by what we have left undone.
We have not loved you with our whole heart;
we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves.
We are truly sorry and we humbly repent.
For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ,
have mercy on us and forgive us;
that we may delight in your will,
and walk in your ways,
to the glory of your Name. Amen.

Celebrant: Almighty God have mercy on you, ✠ forgive you all your sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life.

People: Amen.
