Today's Readings

Isaiah 25:6-9 In this reading the first author of Isaiah is writing in the 8th century BC as Assyrian forces gather menacingly to the north. He anticipates a time of hope and celebration, even over death.

Revelation 21:1-6 In highly symbolic language the writer affirms the new community of faith, the new Jerusalem.

John 11:32-44 The raising of Lazarus by Jesus prefigures the new life of resurrection.

—Bennett, Bill

Short Introductions to the Bible Readings for the Revised Common Lectionary.

FIRST READING A Reading from the book of Isaiah

25: 6-9

Lector On this mountain the LORD of hosts will make for all peoples a feast of rich food, a feast of well-aged wines, of rich food filled with marrow, of well-aged wines strained clear.
And he will destroy on this mountain
the shroud that is cast over all peoples,
the sheet that is spread over all nations;
he will swallow up death forever.
Then the Lord GOD will wipe away the tears from all faces, and the disgrace of his people he will take away from all the earth,
for the LORD has spoken.
It will be said on that day,
Lo, this is our God; we have waited for him, so that he might save us.
This is the LORD for whom we have waited;
let us be glad and rejoice in his salvation.
The Word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

PSALM 24 Domini est terra

Choir The earth is the LORD's and all that is in it, *
the world and all who dwell therein.
For it is he who founded it upon the seas *
and made it firm upon the rivers of the deep.
"Who can ascend the hill of the LORD? " *
and who can stand in his holy place?"
"Those who have clean hands and a pure heart, *
who have not pledged themselves to falsehood,
nor sworn by what is a fraud.
They shall receive a blessing from the LORD *
and a just reward from the God of their salvation."
Such is the generation of those who seek him, *
of those who seek your face, O God of Jacob.
Lift up your heads, O gates;
lift them high, O everlasting doors; *
and the King of glory shall come in.
"Who is this King of glory?" *
"The LORD, strong and mighty,
the LORD, mighty in battle."
Lift up your heads, O gates;
lift them high, O everlasting doors; *
and the King of glory shall come in.
"Who is he, this King of glory?" *
"The LORD of hosts,
he is the King of glory."

Lector I saw a new heaven and a new earth; for the first heaven and the first earth had passed away, and the sea was no more. And I saw the holy city, the new Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband. And I heard a loud voice from the throne saying,

“See, the home of God is among mortals.
He will dwell with them as their God;
they will be his peoples,
and God himself will be with them;
he will wipe every tear from their eyes.
Death will be no more;
mourning and crying and pain will be no more,
for the first things have passed away.”

And the one who was seated on the throne said, “See, I am making all things new.” Also he said, “Write this, for these words are trustworthy and true.” Then he said to me, “It is done! I am the Alpha and the Omega, the beginning and the end.”
The Word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

THE GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Cantor Come to me, all you who labor and are burdened and I will give you rest, says the Lord.

THE GOSPEL

II: 32-44

Gospeller The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John.

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Gospeller When Mary came where Jesus was and saw him, she knelt at his feet and said to him, “Lord, if you had been here, my brother would not have died.” When Jesus saw her weeping, and the Jews who came with her also weeping, he was greatly disturbed in spirit and deeply moved. He said, “Where have you laid him?” They said to him, “Lord, come and see.” Jesus began to weep. So the Jews said, “See how he loved him!” But some of them said, “Could not he who opened the eyes of the blind man have kept this man from dying?”

Then Jesus, again greatly disturbed, came to the tomb. It was a cave, and a stone was lying against it. Jesus said, “Take away the stone.” Martha, the sister of the dead man, said to him, “Lord, already there is a stench because he has been dead four days.” Jesus said to her, “Did I not tell you that if you believed, you would see the glory of God?” So they took away the stone. And Jesus looked upward and said, “Father, I thank you for having heard me. I knew that you always hear me, but I have said this for the sake of the crowd standing here, so that they may believe that you sent me.” When he had said this, he cried with a loud voice, “Lazarus, come out!” The dead man came out, his hands and feet bound with strips of cloth, and his face wrapped in a cloth. Jesus said to them, “Unbind him, and let him go.”

The Gospel of the Lord.

People Praise to you, Lord Christ.

THE HOMILY The Rev. Channing Smith, Rector

The Renewal of Baptismal Vows

Celebrant: Dear friends: in Holy Baptism we have become part of that great fellowship of believers in all times and places, the Communion of Saints. In Baptism, God adopted us as children and made us members of Christ's body and inheritors of God's kingdom with the saints in light. Let us now renew the vows of our own baptism by which God has made us a holy people.

Celebrant: Do you believe in God the Father?

People: I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.

Celebrant: Do you believe in Jesus Christ, the Son of God?

People: I believe in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord.
He was conceived by the power of the Holy Spirit and born of the Virgin Mary.
He suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died, and was buried.
He descended to the dead.
On the third day he rose again.
He ascended into heaven,
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again to judge the living and the dead.

Celebrant: Do you believe in God the Holy Spirit?

People: I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy catholic Church, the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body,
and the life everlasting.

Celebrant: Will you continue in the apostles' teaching and fellowship,
in the breaking of bread, and in the prayers?

People: I will, with God's help.

Celebrant: Will you persevere in resisting evil, and, whenever you fall into sin, repent and return to the Lord?

People: I will, with God's help.

Celebrant: Will you proclaim by word and example the Good News of God in Christ?

People: I will, with God's help.

Celebrant: Will you seek and serve Christ in all persons,
loving your neighbor as yourself?

People: I will, with God's help.

Celebrant: Will you strive for justice and peace among all people,
and respect the dignity of every human being?

People: I will, with God's help.

Celebrant: May Almighty God, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who has given us a new birth by water and the Holy Spirit,
and bestowed upon us the forgiveness of sins,
keep us in eternal life by his grace, in Christ Jesus our Lord.

People: Amen.

The Prayers of the People

[5]

Celebrant: Let us pray for needs of God's people, this nation and the world.

Leader: Faithful God, you are ever mindful of the covenant you made with your Church in baptism: Give us and all members of your church grace to follow daily in the blessed steps of your Son Jesus. At all times and for all things, O God,

All: We give you thanks and praise.

Leader: For the sake of this nation and for the world, O Lord, give to our elected officials wise and discerning minds. May all our works be done in truth and equity. At all times and for all things, O God,

All: We give you thanks and praise.

Leader: God, we praise you for our children. We pray that in humility we may learn from our youngest brothers and sisters what it means to be compassionate, gracious, and filled with the Spirit. At all times and for all things, O God,

All: We give you thanks and praise.

Leader: Merciful Lord, great are your deeds and marvelous are your works: we pray for those in need of your help and healing, trusting in your righteousness...
At all times and for all things, O God:

All: We give you thanks and praise.

Leader: Lord Christ, Living Bread, you promise eternal life for all who eat of your body: grant to us, and to all who have died, eternal life in your heavenly kingdom. At all times and for all things, O God:

All: We give you thanks and praise.

Celebrant: O Lord our God, accept the fervent prayers of your people; in the multitude of your mercies, look with compassion upon us and all who turn to you for help; for you are gracious, O lover of souls, and to you we give glory, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, now and for ever.

People: Amen.

THE OFFERTORY

About the Anthem

The words for 'O Nata Lux' come from the Office of Lauds at the Feast of the Transfiguration, but are wonderfully suited to All Saints' Sunday. They are set here in contemporary fashion by the American composer Morten Lauridsen:

O Light born of Light, Jesus, redeemer of the world, with loving kindness deign to receive suppliant praise and prayer. Thou who once deigned to be clothed in flesh for the sake of the lost, grant us to be members of thy blessed body.
