

INCOMING VESTRY CLASS OF 2027

CAROL BURDETTE

A member of Good Shepherd since 2000, Carol has previously served as a Good Shepherd Sunday School teacher, member of the Altar Guild, the New Parents ministry, the Real Estate committee, Outreach committee, BBC Capital Campaign, provided front desk support for the clergy and staff, and chaired the Recognition committee following the completion of the BBC Capital Campaign. She has also participated in numerous Bible study groups and women's retreats through the years. In addition, Carol served as a board member of the Helping Hand Home for Children in various roles, including President of the board. Carol is a founding board member of the Kamukama Foundation, which supports the education of over 600 students and their families in rural Uganda. Following a 30-year career in residential real estate, Carol recently retired and lives blocks from Good Shepherd with her husband, Milo and their golden retriever, Henry.

EMILY SHRUM PRICE

Emily Shrum Price has been a member of Good Shepherd since she moved to Austin to attend McCombs School of Business at The University of Texas, majoring in Management Information Systems (MIS). She and her husband Joe were married at Good Shepherd in 2005, where their children Jackson, Molly, Lilly, and Luke have been raised. All four children attended Good Shepherd Episcopal School, spanning the old building, the year at The Hill, the new building, and more than a decade later, her youngest son is currently in the 3's class. She has been a member of Mom's Bible Study, volunteered with Mobile Loaves and Fishes and Love on the Run and is currently in Daughters of the King discernment. She previously worked as a Financial Strategy Consultant and in Partnership Marketing. More recently, she has chaired the Dell Children's Hospital Gala and continues to support various children's health and welfare causes.

TIM JARVIS

Tim retired in July 2023 after a 20-year career as the managing director of Stateside Insurance Services, LLC, an independent insurance agency based in Austin. Stateside Insurance Services focused on health insurance for both the under 65 and senior markets. Tim is a 1978 graduate of The University of Texas with a B.S. in advertising.

Tim previously managed the Good Shepherd breakfast cooking program for 3 years in addition to volunteering with the Good Old Boys grill team. Tim also served on the committee that evaluated and recommended the contractor for the campus expansion.

Tim is married to Anne Jarvis and their family has been members of Good Shepherd since 1991.

CLARKE HEIDRICK

Clarke Heidrick has been a member of Good Shepherd since childhood. He is married to Catherine Heidrick and they have four grown children. Clarke is a retired lawyer who specialized in business transactions.

He served on the Vestry in the early 1990's and was on the initial board of directors of Hillside Early Childhood Center. He currently attends services primarily at the Hill and also serves as a worship leader and usher.

He is a current member of the board of trustees of Seminary of the Southwest and is a past board member (and graduate) of St. Stephens Episcopal School.

AMY PADDOCK

Amy is a Managing Director at Group SJR where she works in close partnership with members of the C-Suite at one of the world's largest audio platforms. In her role, she leverages her experience across industries and with best-in-class companies to help advance her client's business objectives, enhance the company's reputation, mitigate exposure to risk and position it as an innovative thought leader and collaborative problem solver.

Prior to joining Group SJR in 2019, Amy spent 17 years at Hill+Knowlton Strategies focusing on crisis communications, reputation and issues management, public affairs, corporate social responsibility, executive positioning, finance PR, external stakeholder engagement and internal communications. Previously, Amy worked in the equities division of Goldman Sachs and in the Latin American investment banking group at Credit Suisse.

Amy has an MBA from The University of Texas at Austin and a BA from Northwestern University and has served on the boards of the Texas Book Festival, Good Shepherd Episcopal School (Chair), St. Andrew's Episcopal School (Vice Chair), the Elizabeth Ann Seton Board and The Girls Empowerment Network.

Amy and her husband Richard have been members of Good Shepherd since 2004 and were married in the church in July 2005. Their boys, Luke (17) and Hayes (14), were baptized at Good Shepherd and attended Good Shepherd Episcopal School.
