WORSHIP

The Holy Eucharist – readings from and responses to the Bible and the celebration of Holy Communion – is the central act of Sunday worship in the Episcopal Church. This leaflet contains the text and hymns necessary to participate in this service.

HEARING DEVICES

Hearing devices are available at the entrance to the main church on the Windsor campus - please ask an usher for assistance.

RESTROOMS

Public restrooms are available in the narthex and the Parish Life Center (PLC) atrium.

PARKING

In addition to on-campus parking, space is available (Sunday mornings only) at Tarrytown Shopping Center across Windsor and Wells Fargo Bank one block east on Windsor. If you park on a street, please be sure that you are not parked in a fire lane or blocking a driveway.

REQUEST PRAYERS

Intercessory prayer is a vital element of our public worship and private devotions. Our parish prays our prayer list during our Sunday services. Additionally, the clergy of the parish regularly remembers by name all those for whom the parish's prayers have been invited, as do members of our Wednesday women's prayer group. We warmly encourage you to invite prayers for yourself and for those you love by scanning the QR code on the right.

CONNECT

If you are new to Good Shepherd or are interested in learning more about our community, please fill out a newcomer card located in the pew racks, narthex, or Parish Life Center atrium and drop it in the offering plate or hand it to an usher or clergy person. You can also fill out a newcomer card online at GSAUSTIN.ORG > I'M NEW > CONNECT WITH US, or by scanning this QR code.

A READING FROM THE BOOK OF DEUTERONOMY

26: 1-11

When you have come into the land that the LORD your God is giving you as an inheritance to possess, and you possess it, and settle in it, you shall take some of the first of all the fruit of the ground, which you harvest from the land that the LORD your God is giving you, and you shall put it in a basket and go to the place that the LORD your God will choose as a dwelling for his name. You shall go to the priest who is in office at that time, and say to him, "Today I declare to the LORD your God that I have come into the land that the LORD swore to our ancestors to give us." When the priest takes the basket from your hand and sets it down before the altar of the LORD your God, you shall make this response before the LORD your God: "A wandering Aramean was my ancestor; he went down into Egypt and lived there as an alien, few in number, and there he became a great nation, mighty and populous. When the Egyptians treated us harshly and afflicted us, by imposing hard labor on us, we cried to the LORD, the God of our ancestors; the LORD heard our voice and saw our affliction, our toil, and our oppression. The LORD brought us out of Egypt with a mighty hand and an outstretched arm, with a terrifying display of power, and with signs and wonders; and he brought us into this place and gave us this land, a land flowing with milk and honey. So now I bring the first of the fruit of the ground that you, O LORD, have given me." You shall set it down before the LORD your God and bow down before the LORD your God. Then you, together with the Levites and the aliens who reside among you, shall celebrate with all the bounty that the LORD your God has given to you and to your house.

The Word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

Choir 1 He who dwells in the shelter of the Most High, * abides under the shadow of the Almighty.
 2 He shall say to the LORD,
 “You are my refuge and my stronghold, *
 my God in whom I put my trust.”
 9 Because you have made the LORD your refuge, *
 and the Most High your habitation, 10 There shall no evil happen to you, *
 neither shall any plague come near your dwelling.
 11 For he shall give his angels charge over you, *
 to keep you in all your ways.
 12 They shall bear you in their hands, *
 lest you dash your foot against a stone.
 13 You shall tread upon the lion and adder; *
 you shall trample the young lion and the serpent under your feet.
 14 Because he is bound to me in love,
 therefore will I deliver him; *
 I will protect him, because he knows my Name.
 15 He shall call upon me, and I will answer him; *
 I am with him in trouble;
 I will rescue him and bring him to honor.
 16 With long life will I satisfy him, *
 and show him my salvation.

A READING FROM PAUL'S LETTER TO THE ROMANS

10: 8b-13

“The word is near you,
 on your lips and in your heart”

(that is, the word of faith that we proclaim); because if you confess with your lips that Jesus is Lord and believe in your heart that God raised him from the dead, you will be saved. For one believes with the heart and so is justified, and one confesses with the mouth and so is saved. The scripture says, “No one who believes in him will be put to shame.” For there is no distinction between Jew and Greek; the same Lord is Lord of all and is generous to all who call on him. For, “Everyone who calls on the name of the Lord shall be saved.”

The Word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

THE GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

¶ The people stand as able for the proclamation of the Gospel.

Cantor, then all:

Glo-ry to you, O Word of God, Lord Je-sus Christ!

Cantor One does not live on bread alone,
 but on every word that comes from the mouth of God.

THE GOSPEL

Gospeller The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke. 4: 1-13

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Gospeller After his baptism, Jesus, full of the Holy Spirit, returned from the Jordan and was led by the Spirit in the wilderness, where for forty days he was tempted by the devil. He ate nothing at all during those days, and when they were over, he was famished. The devil said to him, "If you are the Son of God, command this stone to become a loaf of bread." Jesus answered him, "It is written, 'One does not live by bread alone.'" Then the devil led him up and showed him in an instant all the kingdoms of the world. And the devil said to him, "To you I will give their glory and all this authority; for it has been given over to me, and I give it to anyone I please. If you, then, will worship me, it will all be yours." Jesus answered him, "It is written,

'Worship the Lord your God,
and serve only him.'

Then the devil took him to Jerusalem, and placed him on the pinnacle of the temple, saying to him, "If you are the Son of God, throw yourself down from here, for it is written,

'He will command his angels concerning you, to protect you,'
and

'On their hands they will bear you up, so that you will not dash your foot against a stone.'

Jesus answered him, "It is said, 'Do not put the Lord your God to the test.'" When the devil had finished every test, he departed from him until an opportune time.

The Gospel of the Lord.

People Praise to you, Lord Christ.

THE SERMON The Rev. Paige Alvarez Hanks, Senior Associate Rector

¶ A period of silence is kept following the Sermon.

¶ The people stand as able and say together

We believe in one God,
 the Father, the Almighty,
 maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen.
 We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God,
 eternally begotten of the Father,
 God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God,
 begotten, not made, of one Being with the Father.
 Through him all things were made.
 For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven:
 by the power of the Holy Spirit
 he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary, and was made man.
 For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
 he suffered death and was buried.
 On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures;
 he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
 He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
 and his kingdom will have no end.
 We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
 who proceeds from the Father and the Son.
 With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified.
 He has spoken through the Prophets.
 We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
 We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
 We look for the resurrection of the dead,
 and the life of the world to come. Amen.

WINDSOR SUNDAY BIBLE STUDY: THE PSALMS—A MIRROR OF THE SOUL

From the very beginning, Israel was a covenant community whose primary bond was worship of God. The Book of Psalms has such a key role in its worship life (as it does for us today), revealing the faith of the community. As Christians, we read the psalms with New Testament eyes, and discover similar situations as the Hebrew people before us—sorrow, loneliness, joy, hope and much more. John Calvin said the psalms provide “a mirror of the soul.” After an initial teaching of the “anatomy” of a psalm, we will look at four genres or types of psalms appropriate for Lent—lament, help, remembrance and instruction. Join us on Sunday mornings in Lent, starting March 9–April 6 at 9:15a in the Windsor, media room. No registration is required, and all are welcome to join the discussion. With questions contact the Rev. Mike Wyckoff, mike@gsaustin.org.

THE HILL SUNDAY BIBLE STUDY: GOD’S CHOSEN PEOPLE—AN OLD TESTAMENT STUDY

The story of the people of Israel and their covenant with God is central to the Christian faith. Throughout the New Testament, Jesus, Paul, and others make reference to Israel’s story to explain God’s work in the new covenant through Jesus Christ. Join us as we make a concise trip through Israel’s story in the Old Testament, beginning with Genesis and ending with Daniel, in an effort to understand what God is doing in the earthly ministry of Jesus, in the early church, and today. With questions contact the Rev. Leah Wise, leah@gsaustin.org.

NEWCOMER WELCOME COFFEE AT WINDSOR

SOLEMN CHORAL EVENSONG FOR THE FIRST SUNDAY IN LENT

Evening Prayer is the time when the church gathers to give thanks for the day that is ending. This evening’s music will consist of masterworks by Robert Sumsion, Gerald Near, Giovanni Palestrina and others. Please join us at 6:00p in the Windsor, nave to celebrate our choir and music ministry, and the leadership of our outgoing Choirmaster, Jonathan Babcock.
