A READING FROM THE ACTS OF THE APOSTLES

2:14a, 36-41

Lector Peter, standing with the eleven, raised his voice and addressed the crowd, "Let the entire house of Israel know with certainty that God has made him both Lord and Messiah, this Jesus whom you crucified."

Now when they heard this, they were cut to the heart and said to Peter and to the other apostles, "Brothers, what should we do?" Peter said to them, "Repent, and be baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ so that your sins may be forgiven; and you will receive the gift of the Holy Spirit. For the promise is for you, for your children, and for all who are far away, everyone whom the Lord our God calls to him." And he testified with many other arguments and exhorted them, saying, "Save yourselves from this corrupt generation." So those who welcomed his message were baptized, and that day about three thousand persons were added.

The Word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

PSALM 116: 1-3, 10-17 Dilexi, quoniam

¶ The Choir chants the Psalm.

- 1 I love the Lord, because he has heard the voice of my supplication, * because he has inclined his ear to me whenever I called upon him.
- 2 The cords of death entangled me;
the grip of the grave took hold of me; *
I came to grief and sorrow.
- 3 Then I called upon the Name of the Lord: *
“O Lord, I pray you, save my life.”
- 10 How shall I repay the Lord *
for all the good things he has done for me?
- 11 I will lift up the cup of salvation *
and call upon the Name of the Lord.
- 12 I will fulfill my vows to the Lord *
in the presence of all his people.
- 13 Precious in the sight of the Lord *
is the death of his servants.
- 14 O Lord, I am your servant; *
I am your servant and the child of your handmaid;
you have freed me from my bonds.
- 15 I will offer you the sacrifice of thanksgiving *
and call upon the Name of the Lord.
- 16 I will fulfill my vows to the Lord *
in the presence of all his people,
- 17 In the courts of the Lord’S house, *
in the midst of you, O Jerusalem.
Hallelujah!

A READING FROM THE FIRST LETTER OF PETER

1:17-23

Lector

If you invoke as Father the one who judges all people impartially according to their deeds, live in reverent fear during the time of your exile. You know that you were ransomed from the futile ways inherited from your ancestors, not with perishable things like silver or gold, but with the precious blood of Christ, like that of a lamb without defect or blemish. He was destined before the foundation of the world, but was revealed at the end of the ages for your sake. Through him you have come to trust in God, who raised him from the dead and gave him glory, so that your faith and hope are set on God.

Now that you have purified your souls by your obedience to the truth so that you have genuine mutual love, love one another deeply from the heart. You have been born anew, not of perishable but of imperishable seed, through the living and enduring word of God.

The Word of the Lord.

People

Thanks be to God.

¶ The people stand as able.

THE GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Cantor Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia.

All Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia.

Cantor Lord Jesus, open the scriptures to us;
make our hearts burn while you speak to us.

All Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia.

THE HOLY GOSPEL OF OUR LORD JESUS CHRIST ACCORDING TO LUKE

24:13-35

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Gospeller Now on that same day two of Jesus' disciples were going to a village called Emmaus, about seven miles from Jerusalem, and talking with each other about all these things that had happened. While they were talking and discussing, Jesus himself came near and went with them, but their eyes were kept from recognizing him. And he said to them, "What are you discussing with each other while you walk along?" They stood still, looking sad. Then one of them, whose name was Cleopas, answered him, "Are you the only stranger in Jerusalem who does not know the things that have taken place there in these days?" He asked them, "What things?" They replied, "The things about Jesus of Nazareth, who was a prophet mighty in deed and word before God and all the people, and how our chief priests and leaders handed him over to be condemned to death and crucified him. But we had hoped that he was the one to redeem Israel. Yes, and besides all this, it is now the third day since these things took place. Moreover, some women of our group astounded us. They were at the tomb early this morning, and when they did not find his body there, they came back and told us that they had indeed seen a vision of angels who said that he was alive. Some of those who were with us went to the tomb and found it just as the women had said; but they did not see him." Then he said to them, "Oh, how foolish you are, and how slow of heart to believe all that the prophets have declared! Was it not necessary that the Messiah should suffer these things and then enter into his glory?" Then beginning with Moses and all the prophets, he interpreted to them the things about himself in all the scriptures.

As they came near the village to which they were going, he walked ahead as if he were going on. But they urged him strongly, saying, "Stay with us, because it is almost evening and the day is now nearly over." So he went in to stay with them. When he was at the table with them, he took bread, blessed and broke it, and gave it to them. Then their eyes were opened, and they recognized him; and he vanished from their sight. They said to each other, "Were not our hearts burning within us while he was talking to us on the road, while he was opening the scriptures to us?" That same hour they got up and returned to Jerusalem; and they found the eleven and their companions gathered together. They were saying, "The Lord has risen indeed, and he has appeared to Simon!" Then they told what had happened on the road, and how he had been made known to them in the breaking of the bread.

The Gospel of the Lord.

People Praise to you, Lord Christ.

THE SERMON The Rev. Whitney Kirby, Assisting Clergy

¶ A period of silence is kept following the sermon.

THE NICENE CREED

¶ The people stand as able.

Celebrant Let us reaffirm our faith in the words of the Nicene Creed.

All We believe in one God,
the Father, the Almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father.
Through him all things were made.
For us and for our salvation
he came down from heaven:
by the power of the Holy Spirit
he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary,
and was made man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.
On the third day he rose again
in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son.
With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified.
He has spoken through the Prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Hillside Early Childhood Center is gearing up for its annual fundraising event at the Hill (1700 Woodland Ave.) from 6:30p–9:00p. This event, critical for funding Hillside's operations and scholarship programs, will feature classroom tours, live music, a picnic dinner, drinks, and a silent auction against the backdrop of the Austin skyline. Hillside depends on the Good Shepherd community to engage with fundraising efforts like this event to help reach our goal. To register scan the QR code.

HONORING GRADUATING SENIORS

Each year Good Shepherd honors our graduating high school seniors with a special prayer of blessing at the 10:30a Windsor nave service and a festive treat on the common following the service. We will also print the names of all graduating seniors who would like to be included in our bulletin on May 3. To help us honor your graduating student and celebrate with your family, please register by Sunday, April 26 by scanning the QR code. With questions, contact the Rev. Jonathan McManus-Dail, jonathan@gsaustin.org.

WOMEN OF GOOD SHEPHERD SPRING GAME DAY

Join the Women of Good Shepherd for a festive Spring Game Day Party with a Cinco de Mayo twist from 11:30a–2:00p in the Windsor Allen Hall! Grab your amigas, claim a table, and enjoy an afternoon of friendly competition, laughter, and community. A portion of our proceeds this year will support the Heaven's 27 Foundation. Bring your favorite game—or organize a table for Mahjong, Bridge, or whatever you love to play. We'll keep the party going with delicious food and refreshing margaritas, inspired by the spirit of Cinco de Mayo. Expect bright colors, joyful conversation, and a well-earned break spent together. Come for the games. Stay for the fellowship. Leave with a full heart (and maybe a winning hand). Registration is now open through Wednesday, April 29. With questions contact Meaghan Rafiee, meag.rafiee@gmail.com.
