A READING FROM THE BOOK OF EXODUS

19:2-8a

Lector The Israelites had journeyed from Rephidim, entered the wilderness of Sinai, and camped in the wilderness; Israel camped there in front of the mountain. Then Moses went up to God; the Lord called to him from the mountain, saying, “Thus you shall say to the house of Jacob, and tell the Israelites: You have seen what I did to the Egyptians, and how I bore you on eagles’ wings and brought you to myself. Now therefore, if you obey my voice and keep my covenant, you shall be my treasured possession out of all the peoples. Indeed, the whole earth is mine, but you shall be for me a priestly kingdom and a holy nation. These are the words that you shall speak to the Israelites.”

So Moses came, summoned the elders of the people, and set before them all these words that the Lord had commanded him. The people all answered as one: “Everything that the Lord has spoken we will do.”

The Word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

PSALM 100 Jubilate Deo

¶ The Choir chants the Psalm.

- 1 Be joyful in the Lord, all you lands;*
serve the Lord with gladness and come before his presence with a song.
- 2 Know this: The Lord himself is God;*
he himself has made us, and we are his;
we are his people and the sheep of his pasture.
- 3 Enter his gates with thanksgiving;
go into his courts with praise;*
give thanks to him and call upon his Name.
- 4 For the Lord is good;
his mercy is everlasting;*
and his faithfulness endures from age to age.

Lector Since we are justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we have obtained access to this grace in which we stand; and we boast in our hope of sharing the glory of God. And not only that, but we also boast in our sufferings, knowing that suffering produces endurance, and endurance produces character, and character produces hope, and hope does not disappoint us, because God's love has been poured into our hearts through the Holy Spirit that has been given to us. For while we were still weak, at the right time Christ died for the ungodly. Indeed, rarely will anyone die for a righteous person—though perhaps for a good person someone might actually dare to die. But God proves his love for us in that while we still were sinners Christ died for us.

The Word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

THE HOLY GOSPEL OF OUR LORD JESUS CHRIST ACCORDING TO MATTHEW

9:35-10:8-23

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Gospeller Jesus went about all the cities and villages, teaching in their synagogues, and proclaiming the good news of the kingdom, and curing every disease and every sickness. When he saw the crowds, he had compassion for them, because they were harassed and helpless, like sheep without a shepherd. Then he said to his disciples, "The harvest is plentiful, but the laborers are few; therefore ask the Lord of the harvest to send out laborers into his harvest." Then Jesus summoned his twelve disciples and gave them authority over unclean spirits, to cast them out, and to cure every disease and every sickness. These are the names of the twelve apostles: first, Simon, also known as Peter, and his brother Andrew; James son of Zebedee, and his brother John; Philip and Bartholomew; Thomas and Matthew the tax collector; James son of Alphaeus, and Thaddaeus; Simon the Cananaean, and Judas Iscariot, the one who betrayed him.

These twelve Jesus sent out with the following instructions: "Go nowhere among the Gentiles, and enter no town of the Samaritans, but go rather to the lost sheep of the house of Israel. As you go, proclaim the good news, 'The kingdom of heaven has come near.' Cure the sick, raise the dead, cleanse the lepers, cast out demons. You received without payment; give without payment. Take no gold, or silver, or copper in your belts, no bag for your journey, or two tunics, or sandals, or a staff; for laborers deserve their food. Whatever town or village you enter, find out who in it is worthy, and stay there until you leave. As you enter the house, greet it. If the house is worthy, let your peace come upon it; but if it is not worthy, let your peace return to you. If anyone will not welcome you or listen to your words, shake off the dust from your feet as you leave that house or town. Truly I tell you, it will be more tolerable for the land of Sodom and Gomorrah on the day of judgment than for that town.

“See, I am sending you out like sheep into the midst of wolves; so be wise as serpents and innocent as doves. Beware of them, for they will hand you over to councils and flog you in their synagogues; and you will be dragged before governors and kings because of me, as a testimony to them and the Gentiles. When they hand you over, do not worry about how you are to speak or what you are to say; for what you are to say will be given to you at that time; for it is not you who speak, but the Spirit of your Father speaking through you. Brother will betray brother to death, and a father his child, and children will rise against parents and have them put to death; and you will be hated by all because of my name. But the one who endures to the end will be saved. When they persecute you in one town, flee to the next; for truly I tell you, you will not have gone through all the towns of Israel before the Son of Man comes.”

The Gospel of the Lord.

People Praise to you, Lord Christ.

THE SERMON The Rev. Paige Alvarez Hanks, Senior Associate Rector

¶ A period of silence is kept following the sermon.

THE NICENE CREED

¶ The people stand as able.

Celebrant Let us reaffirm our faith in the words of the Nicene Creed.

All We believe in one God,
the Father, the Almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father.
Through him all things were made.
For us and for our salvation
he came down from heaven:
by the power of the Holy Spirit
he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary,
and was made man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.
On the third day he rose again
in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son.
With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified.
He has spoken through the Prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen.

One year ago, floods tore through Kerrville and surrounding counties resulting in devastating loss of life. The Hill's annual 4th of July event will begin with an acknowledgment of the continuing grief our community holds and the way grief and joy so often coexist in our mortal lives. It will continue with our traditional program, including face painters, popsicles, live music, and a view of downtown fireworks. Join us at the Hill (1700 Woodland Avenue) from 8:00p-10:00p. With questions contact the Rev. Leah Wise, leah@gsaustin.org.

SUNDAY

JULY 12

SUMMER SUNDAY MORNING BIBLE STUDY: THE MESSAGE OF THE PROPHETS

At crucial times in the history of Judaism and the nation of Israel, God sent prophets to give the people a new vision. The message of these prophets is vital to our understanding of the Old Testament, and the context of the ministry of Jesus Christ. We will look at both the prophets of the exile and those of the post-exilic period (upon the return of the Jews to their home). Each class will stand alone, so join us when you are in town. With questions contact the Rev. Mike Wyckoff, mike@gsaustin.org.

HILL COMMUNITY MINISTRY SCHOOL SUPPLY DRIVE STARTS

Our annual school supply drive kicks off July 12— August 9, which supports elementary schoolers at AISD schools located near the Hill. Donations will be collected in designated areas at Windsor and the Hill, to be distributed before the new school year begins. We will share an Amazon wish list to aid you in your shopping!

FRIDAY

JULY 31

CHORAL SCHOLARS CONCERT

The Good Shepherd Choral Scholars present a concert of vocal and choral music at 7:00p at the Windsor Allen Hall. This program is offered to the parish and to the community free of charge. Our scholars will offer a varied program of classical and modern music, both sacred and secular.
